

How do I apply to vote by proxy?

- 1 You must ask someone if they are willing and able to be your proxy and vote on your behalf. Please note that a person can only be the proxy for close relatives and up to two other people at the same election or referendum*.
- 2 Fill in the proxy vote application form.
- 3 Make sure you complete all sections of the form and supply your date of birth and signature.
- 4 Return your form to your local electoral registration office. You can find their details at www.aboutmyvote.co.uk.

Only electors who are (or will be) registered individually are entitled to vote by proxy. In addition, the person you wish to appoint as your proxy can only act as proxy if they are (or will be) registered individually. Contact your electoral registration office for further information.

Please do not return your form to the Electoral Commission. Please note: your application form must arrive at your electoral registration office by 5pm 11 working days before an election or referendum when changing or cancelling an existing proxy, postal or postal proxy vote and by 5pm 6 working days before an election or referendum when applying for a new proxy vote.

* By referendum we mean: Neighbourhood Planning Referendums, Council Tax Referendums, Mayoral & Governance Arrangements Referendums and Local Authority Advisory polls. If you wish to apply to vote by post for a different type of referendum, please contact your Electoral Registration Officer.

Voting by proxy

You can apply to vote by proxy for a particular election or referendum, for a set period of time or for all future electoral events. This form allows you to vote by proxy for as long as you remain registered as a Crown Servant, British Council employee or their spouse or civil partner.

What happens after I've returned this form?

- Your proxy must go to your local polling station to vote. If your proxy cannot get to the polling station, they can apply to vote for you by post. They can apply to do this by 5pm 11 working days before polling day. They should contact the electoral registration office for more details.
- Your proxy will be sent a proxy poll card, telling them where and when to vote on your behalf.
- You should let your proxy know how you want them to vote on your behalf, for example, which candidate, party, or outcome.
- If it turns out that you are able to go to the polling station on polling day, you can vote in person as long as your proxy has not already done so or has not applied to vote for you by post.
- You will need to give your date of birth and signature on this application form. This information is needed to prevent fraud. If you are unable to sign this form, please contact your Electoral Registration Officer.

Voting as a proxy

A person can only be a proxy for close relatives and up to two other people at an election or referendum.

Close relatives are the spouse, civil partner, parent, grandparent, brother, sister, child or grandchild of the applicant.

The person you wish to appoint as your proxy can only act as proxy if they are 18 or over and they are (or will be) registered individually.

More information

If you have any questions about voting by proxy, go to www.aboutmyvote.co.uk or contact your electoral registration office. This is the office responsible for the address where you would be living if you were not posted abroad or where you were last registered to vote in the UK.

In England and Wales, the electoral registration office is based at your local council. In Scotland, it may be a separate office.

For contact details, go to www.aboutmyvote.co.uk

This form does not apply in Northern Ireland. Visit www.eoni.org.uk for more information.

Electoral Registration Officers will only use the information you provide for electoral purposes. They will look after personal information securely and will follow the Data Protection Act 1998. Electoral Registration Officers will not give personal information about you to anyone else or another organisation unless they have to by law.

Only one person can apply to vote by proxy using this form. Please write in black ink and use block letters. When you have filled in every section and signed the form yourself, send it to your local electoral registration office. You can get the address at www.aboutmyvote.co.uk
