

Voting by proxy

- Return your form to your local electoral registration office. You can find their details at www.aboutmyvote.co.uk.

Please do not return your form to The Electoral Commission. Only electors who are (or will be) registered individually are entitled to apply to vote by proxy. In addition, the person you wish to appoint as your proxy can only act as proxy if they are (or will be) registered individually. Contact your electoral registration office for further information.

How do I apply to vote by proxy?

- 1 Ask someone if they are willing and able to be your proxy and vote on your behalf. Please note that a person can only be the proxy for close relatives and up to two other people at the same poll. The person you wish to appoint as your proxy can only act as proxy if they are 18 or over and registered individually.
- 2 Fill in the proxy vote application form. If you are a member of the Armed Forces, or the spouse or civil partner of a member of the Armed Forces, and you are registered as a service voter, you do not need support for your application. If you are registered as an ordinary elector, you will need support from your employer or another authorised person at your workplace. For further information contact your local Electoral Registration Office.
- 3 Make sure you give your date of birth and signature. You need to fill in every section, even if you have already given the information on your Service Voter registration form.
- 4 Send your completed application form to the Electoral Registration Office in the area where you are registering as soon as possible. You can find the address at www.aboutmyvote.co.uk.
- 5 You must return your proxy vote application form by 5pm, 6 working days before the poll. But be aware that if you are not already registered to vote, your application to register must have reached the Electoral Registration Officer by midnight, 12 working days before the poll.
- 6 If you miss the deadline for applying to vote by proxy you can still apply for an emergency proxy in a limited number of circumstances up until 5pm on polling day. Contact your Electoral Registration Office in the area in which you have registered or are registering for advice. You can find the address at www.aboutmyvote.co.uk

If in doubt, speak to your Unit Registration Officer.

What happens after I have applied to vote by proxy?

- Your proxy must go to your polling station to vote. If they cannot get to the polling station, they can vote for you by post. They must apply to do this by 5pm, 11 working days before polling day. The Electoral Registration Office in the area where you are registered can give you more details about this. You can find the address at www.aboutmyvote.co.uk.
- Your proxy will be sent a proxy poll card telling them where and when to vote.
- You should tell your proxy how you want them to vote on your behalf, for example, which candidate, party or outcome.
- If it turns out that you are able to go to the polling station on polling day, you can vote in person as long as your proxy has not already done so or has not applied to vote for you by post.

More information

If you have any questions about registering to vote or voting by post or proxy, contact your Unit Registration Officer or the Electoral Registration Office in the area where you are registering.

Your Electoral Registration Office is the office responsible for the UK address where you are registering to vote.

In England and Wales, the Electoral Registration Office is based at your local council. In Scotland, it may be a separate office. For contact details, visit www.aboutmyvote.co.uk.

This form does not apply to Northern Ireland. Visit www.eoni.org.uk for more information.

Electoral Registration Officers will only use the information you provide for electoral purposes. They will look after personal information securely and will follow the Data Protection Act 1998. Electoral Registration Officers will not give personal information about you to anyone else or another organisation unless they have to by law.

Only one person can apply to vote by proxy using this form. Please write in black ink and use BLOCK LETTERS. When you have filled in every section and signed the form yourself, send it to your local electoral registration office. You can get the address at www.aboutmyvote.co.uk
