

The above is a screenshot from the ZTV software:

The software assigns the black dots (referred to as origins) a height of 2.3m.

The coloured dots (same process is then undertaken for the other coloured dots (located at central locations on the other infrastructure such as the substations) assigned heights 2.6m and 3m.